

Issue No. 21 - January 2022

PinkUK

PinkUK.com LGBTQ+ guide for the UK & worldwide

Celebrating the 27th film anniversary of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert

Courtesy of Broken Heel Festival

Broken Heel Festival

24 — 28 March 2022
Broken Hill

New South Wales
(NSW) Australia

The Broken Heel Festival is a fabulous five-day event which celebrates the theatrical anniversary of 'Priscilla Queen of the Desert' at her spiritual home, The Palace Hotel and the township of Broken Hill, NSW, Australia.

Wishing you a Pink, fun and prosperous '22

So 2022 is upon us. We hope you're enjoying the final stages of the festive season wherever you are and that it's been traditionally fun, so maybe seeing more friends and family, than last year.

You'll remember that 2020's Christmas and New Year's Eve festivities in many places were disrupted with last minute, changes about what you could do, affecting millions of people's plans. Now as we move into 2022, the rules still look likely to keep changing on what people are allowed to do, where they can travel, what they need to do and what the requirements are to carry on with their social lives, travel or meet up safely. We'll continue to keep you updated in our monthly newsletters as best we can. On a brighter

Continued overleaf...

Would you like to advertise here? Contact

Featured pride: UK Student Pride, 25-27 Feb, London, 2022

National Student Pride is the UK's largest LGBTQ+ student event. National Student Pride offers the UK's largest careers fair featuring LGBTQ+ proactive employers. Taking place 25 to 27 Feb. at the University of Westminster. Day wrist band passes are free but a full week-end pass can be bought for £5 which also offers free entry and queue Jump to G-A-Y Late, G-A-Y Heaven with £2/2.70 drinks all night as well as a host of drinks deals across bars in Soho. Free day wristbands provide entry to the careers fair, panel discussions, queer performances and more to be announced! Well, get ready for Student Pride next month.

National Student Pride

Night clubbers need a Covid vax pass but no further restrictions in England

Nightclubs in England should check a customer's vaccination status or the person should show proof of a negative lateral flow rapid test. However no new restrictions were announced in England by the UK government on 27 December.

Meanwhile other UK nations Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales closed nightclubs 26/27 December.

UK Gov. info

Pride listings on PinkUK

Right now for 2022, we have 59 prides in the UK and 228 prides and events globally in 35 countries. For 2023 we have three pride events in the UK and seven prides and events in five countries. We have 3,187 venues listed in 66 countries. Add here

Contact us at pinkuk.com

Wishing you the Pinkest 2022!

note we now have 228 Prides listed for 2022 across the world. Let's keep fingers crossed that Prides and venues prosper once again in 2022! Wishing you a cool, pink and fun year.

Pinkest love and respect, Dave and team xxx

Scene is the top UK, free to read, online, LGBTQ+ magazine.

Scene recently relaunched with its fabulous new print copy... We are proud to support them. See their latest edition.

Fern Howe Guest House, Keswick, Cumbria

Queer-friendly

quaintness in the Lake District

You'll find Fern Howe Guest House in the picturesque village of Braithwaite, Keswick, in England's beautiful Lake District National Park. Near Derwent Water and Bassenthwaite Lake, the management says the guest house is the perfect location for families, cyclists, walkers, photographers and artists who want to experience the National Park's scenery. The village has a quaint charm with three pubs, a shop and great local walks. The guest-house offers dramatic views of the Fells (hills). Rooms have ensembles; booked on a bed and breakfast basis with fridge, TV (Freeview) with complementary toiletries.

Fern Howe