Featured Pride: Swansea Pride, Wales

After a gap of two years because of the pandemic, Swansea Pride in south Wales, returns for 2022 on the UK May Bank Holiday weekend, 30 April to 1 May. In 2019 Swansea Pride held a week-long series of events and culminated in the biggest Pride parade ever organized locally with a festival at the National Waterfront Museum and Museum Green. The organisers say Swansea Pride will remain a free to attend event. Like last time, the weekend events will be held at the National Waterfront Museum and Museum Green.

Featured venue: Bryn Woodlands, north Wales

Bryn Woodlands is an LGBTQ+ friendly boutique guest house in the picturesque town of Colwyn Bay in north Wales. You'll find that no request is too much trouble, say the management. An easy drive to Snowdonia railway, Caernafon Castle UNESCO World Heritage Site and the Portmeirion Italian-style village.

Each boutique style room has a flat screen TV, tea and coffee making facilities, toiletries, a hairdryer with free Wifi.

Breakfast is served 7.30am to 9am on weekdays. On weekends and bank holidays 8am until 9.30am. Sounds delicious!!

Reminder: Mothering Sunday 27 March

In the UK, Mothering Sunday or Mother's Day is always celebrated three weeks before the religious festival of Easter. So Mothering Sunday this year falls on the 27 March. If your mum is around, ignore this reminder at your peril :)... Read more about what you can do to make her day happy at our PinkUK article:
